

MASTER'S DEGREE IN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

Area of Concentration In:

INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS

Undergraduate Preparation

A minimum of eight (8) hours of credit in the following courses or their equivalents should be taken:

Regional Geography (GEO 301, 304, 306, 307, 308, 311, 312)
Political Geography (GEO 378)
International Politics (POL 271)
Political Systems of Regions (POL 332, 333, 335, 337)
International Organization (POL 381)
International Law (POL 382)
Proficiency in a language is strongly recommended.

Required Courses

Proseminar on International Relations (POL 671)	3
Geography of Population and Resources (GEO 572)	3
Sub-total of hours	6

Electives (a minimum of 13 hours from the following courses)

International Mass Communication (COM 546)	3
Environmental Economics (ECO 534; summer)	3
International Trade and Commercial Policy (ECO 541)	2-3
International Monetary Relations (ECO 542)	2-3
Seminar of Comparative Political Systems (POL 630)	4
Proseminar on Regional Systems (POL 631, 633, 635, 637)	3
Environmental Politics (POL 650.F)	4
Seminar on International Relations (POL 670)	4
Latin American Environmental Affairs (IES 514)	3
Sub-total of hours	13
Total Hours	19

Specialty Coordinator: Sandra Woy-Hazleton
102 Boyd Hall
Telephone: 95811