

MASTER'S DEGREE IN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

Area of Concentration In:

URBAN AND REGIONAL ANALYSIS

Prerequisites

8 semester hours of urban affairs (urban geography, urban sociology, urban design, urban politics, urban economics and urban history)

Required Courses

| | |
|--|---|
| Urban and Regional Planning (GEO 551) | 3 |
| Advanced Urban and Regional Planning (GEO 559) | 3 |
| Sub-total of hours | 6 |

Electives (minimum of 9 hours)

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Regional Economics (ECO 535) | 3 |
| Regional Land Use Capability Analysis (GEO 537) | 3 |
| Community Planning for an Aging Population (GEO 556) | 3 |
| Marketing Geography (GEO 564) | 3 |
| Outdoor Recreation and Tourism (GEO 579) | 3 |
| Total Hours | 16 |

Each student's program will be individually developed. Courses other than those listed above may count toward the Area of Concentration if they fit into the program's focus.

Specialty Coordinator: Gene E. Willeke
102 Boyd Hall
Telephone: 9-5811